AURORA VIEWING

Join us for a late evening to early morning tour (10 p.m. - 3 a.m.) and prime viewing at a rustic lodge located outside Fairbanks away from the city lights – wide-open areas ensure a perfect view of Alaska's fall and winter sky. The Aurora Borealis/Northern Lights is a natural phenomenon and cannot be guaranteed. The best time to see the Northern Lights in Alaska is between August and September when the sun sets earlier, yielding darker skies that are ideal for witnessing the aerial light show.

$140 per person

This Land Excursion* can be booked with Cruisetours 2A, 2B, 4A, 4B, 6A, 6B, 7A, 8A & 8B departing after August 21
